Our bankruptcy and insolvency specialists work with our trial attorneys to creatively and efficiently handle bankruptcy-related litigation. In Chapter 11 bankruptcy cases in Delaware, Michigan, New York, Ohio and elsewhere our attorneys have prosecuted and defended adversary proceedings and contested matters involving:

- Preference and fraudulent transfers
- Bankruptcy sales
- Directors and officers litigation
- Assumption and rejection of real property leases and executory contracts
- Use of cash collateral
- Plan structuring and confirmation
- Objections to discharge
- Automatic stay violations
- Claims objections

The recent litigation experience of our attorneys includes proceedings in the bankruptcy cases of The Bombay Company, Collins & Aikman Corp., Dana Corp., Enron, Huffy Corp., LTV Steel and Union Stamping & Assembly, Inc.

We also regularly appear in state courts in connection with insolvency related litigation. The matters we are currently engaged in or recently handled include claims related to:

- Receiverships
- Foreclosures
- Replevins
- Landlord-tenant disputes
- Environmental issues
- Fraudulent conveyances
- Breach of fiduciary duties
- "Responsible party" litigation
