

Class Actions

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

www.ulmer.com

Represented an insurance company in a nationwide class action involving the use of software to evaluate first-party claims.

Represented a title insurance company in a federal class action involving mortgage foreclosures.

Represented an insurance company in a state class action involving the payment of local taxes.

Represented an insurance company in a federal class action involving the reimbursement of medical benefits.

Represented a publicly traded company in an environmental class action involving emissions from a power plant.

Represented several insurance companies in state class actions involving the payment of incidental benefits.

Represented a publicly traded manufacturing company in class action claims under the federal securities laws.

Represented several public companies in class actions in the pharmaceutical, medical device and nutritional supplements industries.

Represented a financial services company in class action claims under the federal securities laws.

Represented numerous employers in class action employment and labor cases, including alleged race and gender discrimination claims (equal pay, promotion and hiring), as well as wage and hour and claims relating to the Worker Adjustment and Restraining Notification (WARN) Act.

Represented a financial services professional in a class action which was tried for several weeks involving contract and fiduciary duty claims.

Represented a major financial institution in class action consumer protection claims involving credit card charges.

ulmer | berne | llp

ATTORNEYS

Class Actions

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

www.ulmer.com

Represented pharmaceutical companies, a major airline and a welding distributor in multidistrict litigation (MDL) proceedings.

Represented a board of directors in shareholder litigation involving a merger between two financial services companies.

Represented a building products wholesaler in class action claims under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA).

Represented multiple major corporations in class actions under the Consumer Sales Practices Act.

ulmer | berne | llp

ATTORNEYS