

Intellectual Property Litigation

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

www.ulmer.com

Serving as Ohio counsel for Microsoft Corporation in its software piracy (copyright and trademark infringement) litigation.

Representing a Fortune 500 company in software piracy (copyright and trademark infringement) litigation.

Representing a Fortune 500 company in claims involving misappropriation of trade secrets.

Representing a major public service multimedia organization in trademark litigation involving its primary trademark.

Representing a leading horse saddlery company in trademark litigation involving one of its primary brand names, and in patent litigation concerning designs of several of its equestrian products.

Representing a national transportation logistics company in trademark litigation involving its primary trademark.

Representing a major insurance company in Internet domain name disputes and enforcing its trademark rights.

Representing a major manufacturer in prosecuting a trade dress infringement claim against a competing similarly configured product.

Representing an online financial company in a copyright infringement action regarding content copied from its website.

Representing a child safety device manufacturer in patent infringement litigation in Texas.

Representing a major financial institution in multi-district patent infringement litigation involving interactive call technology.

Representing a non-U.S. company before the International Trade Commission in proceedings to block importation of allegedly infringing products.

Representing a Christmas decorations manufacturer in Trademark Trial and Appeal Board (TTAB) proceedings to block attempted registration of a confusingly similar trademark.

ulmer | berne | llp

ATTORNEYS

Intellectual Property Litigation

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

www.ulmer.com

Representing a manufacturer of children's toys and home and garden products in trademark cancellation proceedings before the TTAB.

Representing the manufacturer of a consumer timer for dispensing medication in trademark cancellation proceedings before the TTAB.

Representing a manufacturer of recreational marine products in a series of patent infringement actions to protect its entire product line.

ulmer | berne | llp

ATTORNEYS