

Intellectual Property/Licensing

www.ulmer.com

CONTACT INFO:

Ulmer & Berne's intellectual property (IP) and technology group has extensive experience in intellectual property/licensing. Members of the group have handled a variety of sophisticated licensing transactions involving a diverse array of tangible and intangible assets and technologies. These transactions have included:

Michael D. Stovsky
p 216.583.7136
mstovsky@ulmer.com

Michael A. Marrero
p 513.698.5078
mmarrero@ulmer.com

- Multiple site ERP and CRM software implementations;
- Software and information systems development agreements;
- Information systems outsourcing and related services agreements;
- Service level, support and maintenance agreements related to software assets and technologies;
- Website development agreements;
- Software application service provider agreements;
- Technology transfer agreements, including licenses of biotechnology assets in the area of genetic marker technology;
- Multi-site Voice over Internet Protocol (VoIP) based Internet telephony implementations involving both software and hardware acquisition, implementation and service agreements; and
- Biotechnology and life sciences transfer, development, licensing, support, commercialization and merger and acquisition agreements.

ulmer | berne | llp

ATTORNEYS