

Patents

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

www.ulmer.com

Representing an electronic stun gun manufacturer in trademark prosecution and application matters.

Representing a Cleveland-based greeting card manufacturer in intellectual property matters and technology contracts related to the divestiture of one of its divisions.

Representing a Cleveland-based global adhesives manufacturer in the negotiation of a software license dispute.

Representing one of the leading international manufacturers of tires with trademarks, copyright and technology-related matters.

Representing several Cleveland-based companies, privately held and publicly traded, in connection with software licensing, ERP implementation and other technology transfers.

Representing a Cleveland-based provider of Voice Over IP services as general outside corporate counsel, technology counsel and intellectual property counsel.

Representing a Cleveland-based developer of spinal implants as general outside counsel and technology counsel.

Representing a New Jersey-based privately held dietary-supplement manufacturer and marketer on intellectual property and general corporate matters.

Representing a Tennessee distributor of medical supplies on intellectual property and general corporate matters.

Representing a Cleveland-based teaching hospital system in the negotiation of technology contracts.

Representing an Ohio holding company in a source code escrow transaction.

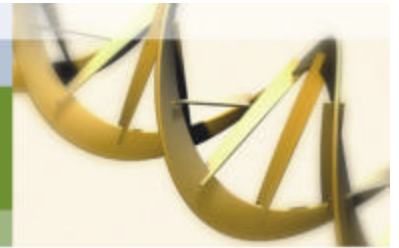

Representing a local community college in the negotiation and preparation of system development and system maintenance and technical support agreements in connection with a new wireless employee work order system being implemented at the college.

ulmer | berne | llp

ATTORNEYS

Patents

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

www.ulmer.com

Representing an Ohio limited liability company in numerous intellectual property matters including:

- Advising on and negotiating several technology and data licensing agreements and joint marketing agreements.
- Negotiating a license agreement with an international sourcing company.
- Advising on a teaming agreement and joint venture with a software developer and designer.
- Negotiating a licensing/consulting agreement with a vision care, pharmaceutical and surgical manufacturer and distributor.
- Negotiating a consulting agreement with a home improvement warehouse retailer.
- Negotiating a joint venture with an international provider of information management solutions.

Representing a rapidly growing international emerging pharmaceutical company in a $150 million license agreement for a new attention deficit disorder drug.

Representing a bio-technology company in negotiating a manufacturing license agreement to produce a new FDA-approved product for wound healing.

ulmer | berne | llp

ATTORNEYS